Mineral Contours

Minimalistic, sleek and modern, these bricks are the result of outstanding craftsmanship and leading-edge innovation. Crafted from some of the finest white clays in Australia, their subtle matte colours and gentle speckled surfaces bring an incredibly elegant natural stone finish to interior and exterior projects.

On the surface, the Mineral Contours collection is almost naturally perfect and invitingly tactile, yet their development has been the result of years of work utilising sophisticated kiln processes. These bricks are ideal for feature walls, custom builds, columns and more – indeed anywhere that requires an architecturally designed statement to be made.

Fringe Range

Exuberant, individual and perhaps even a bit quirky, this range will ignite interest and inspire originality in just about any design where an edgier – but no less sophisticated – look is required.

Named in celebration of the colourful arts festivals, these bricks lend themselves to the spirit of adventure. Uncompromisingly bold, street-ready and eye-catching, they're at home in commercial projects as well as bespoke building projects where a confident, creative touch is required.

Part of the appeal comes from their glorious inconsistency – celebrating the natural flaws, colour variations and textures of brick making techniques that are centuries old. Yet the modern techniques used to create them are cutting-edge.

Mortex

MORTEX is a factory manufactured, quality assured premixed M4 rated mortar solution. Its consistency can save labour time, increase efficiency, remove the need for on site blending, and it is compliant with AS3700:2018. MORTEX takes the guess work out of mortar blending and reduces the potential for under strength, non compliant mortar use.

This can ultimately reduce potential liabilities, saving money and time on rectifications. With the adoption of ISO9001:2008 principles, the mortar constituents are accurately measured and blended in a controlled environment to ensure consistent, homogeneous mortar is produced on-site.

Mortar Colour

White mortar is currently the most popular colour. This is made by mixing light coloured cement and white sand and results in a traditional brick and mortar look. Mortar can be coloured by adding powdered or liquid pigments to the mortar as it is being mixed by the bricklayer. It can also be tinted to match the brick colour, giving a very even wall colour. Please confirm with your bricklayer what their mortar colouring offering is before making your final decision. For more information on MORTEX, please visit: australbricks.com.au/VIC/product/Mortex

Mortar Finishes

There are four common mortar finishes and these various finishes result in different shadow lines on the wall. A raked finish will create a deep shadow in the mortar joint. This brings out the horizontal lines of the brickwork (and the vertical lines to a lesser extent) and it is the most common finish. Ironed and struck joints also create shadow lines, but these are much finer and more subtle. A flush joint doesn't allow shadow lines to form at all, giving the wall a flatter, more unified look. Using a mortar colour to match the brick will take this a step further.

EXP = Exposure grade

Suitable for use in external walls exposed to aggressive environments, such as; areas subjected to salts in the soil, adjacent material or ground water, in coastal areas exposed to attack from windborne salt spray, or retaining walls subjected to fertilisers and ground salts.

GP = General purpose

Suitable for internal and external walls only when above a sheet or membrane damp-proof course and protected by an adequate coping, eaves, roof or similar top covering. These units should not be directly exposed to saline environments.

Solar absorptance rating

In the design of energy efficient buildings, architects and consulting engineers need to be able to calculate the heat loss or gain of materials used to construct these buildings.

For this reason, our product range has been categorised into the below three colour groups –

Light (L) < 0.475

Medium (M) 0.475 - 0.70

Dark (D) > 0.70
to assist with their calculations.
